Mastering Workers' Compensation

Host University of South Florida OSHA Training Institute Education Center.

Mastering Workers' Compensation is a comprehensive, but not exhaustive, review of major Federal and Florida Laws, Statutes and Regulations concerning Workers' Compensation. Participants will discover how the ultimate cost of Workers' Compensation Insurance is determined by the type of plan, the employer's short and long term loss experience, and the care with which the organization audits the computation of premium. This course addresses the impact of experience modification, retrospective rating plans, payroll classification and audit tips, identification of problem claims, return to work strategies, and other opportunities to produce measurable reductions in insurance cost.
